TALK OF THE TOWN

Infants' hands and wrappers. Knight's. Look for Shea's shoe ad. on page 4.—ad. You should see the snappy top coat for young men. Ask the McWhorter Co. Removal sale at Diversi Fruit Co. Fruit and vegetables at very low prices. City Engineer Frank O. Lee was called to Burlington this morning by the death of his grandfather.

Peter Mabern of Foss street went yesterday to Bethel, where he is visiting friends for a few days.

Mrs. B. W. Goodfellow of Perry street is employed for a time as a clerk in the McQueen store at Montpelier.

Mrs. Betsey Richardson of Orange Center was brought to the City hospital in M. J. Whitcomb's ambulance yesterday for treatment.

William Flynn, who has been spending a vacation in Rutland and Burlington, has resumed his duties as fireman at Hotel Barre.

Miss Hester F. Gove reached here last night from Putnam, N. Y., to spend the Easter vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Gove.

Remember the rummage sale at Methodist church next Monday from 2 to 7 p. m. Anyone wishing articles called for, telephone 441-2.—adv.

George C. Crowley resumed his duties as night clerk at Hotel Barre last night, after passing a two weeks' vacation in Providence, R. I.

Mrs. H. S. Soule has returned to her home in Fairfield, after passing a few days with her three children, who are attending Goddard seminary.

Special bargains for to-day and Saturday night—64 inches wide tablecloths 30c a yard; kimono aprons 39c. The Little Dry Goods Store, Cottage street.

Mrs. Sarah Gurley, who had been spending several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Hubbard, in South Royalton, returned yesterday much improved in health.

J. F. Driscoll, inspector for the New England Insurance Exchange, and J. D. Caldwell, chief engineer, from Boston, are in the city collecting data in regard to water supply and fire protection.

Auction sale Saturday afternoon and evening at the Kenyon store. Absolutely the last day. Everything will be sold, silverware, cut glass, water sets, watches and jewelry. Last chance, last day. C. B. Crofts.

All children of the Presbyterian Sunday school taking part in the Easter concert, both cantata and primary department, are asked to meet at the church at 3 p. m. Saturday. Parents can cooperate by sending the children.

Ladies' and misses' Easter suits and coats received this date by express. Latest New York designs in conservative models. All colors and sizes, from $13.50 to $25. Also men's, young men's and boys' Sack suits, 10 to 15 percent advance.

Victor Osola, a clerk in the Drown pharmacy, is recovering from a blow which he received when a ball struck him in the eye at baseball practice Wednesday afternoon. Osola is a candidate for the pitcher's position in the Spaulding high school line-up.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday and to-day were the following people: J. L. Clark of Brandon, P. L. Blake of Portsmouth, N. H., T. M. Brock of Wells River, A. E. Middleton of Burlington, P. E. McAuliffe of Burlington, Philip Jordan of Portland, Me., M. E. Prescott of Manchester, J. Mendelsohn of Plattsburg, N. Y., A. C. Mason of Rutland, M. L. Holland of Springfield, Merrill Walker of Newton Highlands, Mass., and J. B. Yandow of Winoski.

Spaulding starts her 1916 baseball season to-morrow afternoon on Lincoln campus when she meets the Montpelier seminary team. Poor weather conditions have prevented the team from getting anywhere near the amount of practice that they should have before playing, but in this respect the Montpelier team is not much better off, though their field was dried off a few days before the field at Gospel village. Coach Brown refuses to give out even a tentative batting order before the game as his material is practically all new and he is uncertain where he will play the men.

Nichols will probably pitch and either Cole or Jordan will be behind the bat, but aside from these men advance "dope" is nothing but guess work.

Miss Martha Campbell of Pleasant street has been advised of the death of her brother, John Campbell, a former resident of Barre, which occurred suddenly at his home in Ballston Spa, N. Y., Sunday evening, April 16. Funeral services were held yesterday and interment took place in Ballston Spa. The deceased is survived by his wife and a son, besides the sister residing in this city. His son, Clair Campbell, is a sailor in the United States navy. Barre people will recall Mr. Campbell as a former granite manufacturer, although he left this city nearly twenty years ago. For some years prior to his departure for New York, he pursued farming as an occupation and lived on the Willey farm, so called, in South Barre. After moving to Ballston Spa, he built up a prosperous retail monument dealer business, visiting Barre occasionally for the purpose of purchasing stock.
